

What We Can Do For You

Are any of these issues you are grappling with?

- Is your sales force too expensive for what you are accomplishing?
- Do you ever feel as if you lost a top-caliber candidate to a competing franchise because your sales representative was inadequate?
- Do you find lead generation daunting? Do you find the internet and new tech daunting?
- Do you have confidence you are in legal compliance? Or are your legal bills becoming too overwhelming?
- Are you making your franchise sales numbers?
- Do you often wonder how to get the most qualified candidates as YOUR owners?
- Are your internal departments becoming territorial? And is it impacting the success of your business?
- Are your fixed employee costs out of control?
- Do you have a communications philosophy? Do you even know why you should have a communications philosophy?
- Do you know the “right” way to build your brand? Why is this important?
- Can you answer how you might double, triple or even quadruple your franchise sales?
- Do you have a long-range marketing strategy? Or have you been implementing your marketing the same way – for your company AND your owners – without major change for some time now?

If you answered “yes” to more than 3 of these statements, chances are you could use an outside sales and marketing management perspective.
